

Seaton Valley Learning Partnership

Believing and Achieving Together

Seaton Delaval First School is one of nine schools in the Seaton Valley Learning Partnership.

The people of the Seaton Valley Learning Partnership are committed to transforming the learning journey by:

Aiming Higher

for pupils, parents, professionals and the community

- Cultivating higher aspirations
- Increasing motivation, confidence and enjoyment of learning
- Ensuring high standards, shared objectives and expectations
- Delivering high quality teaching and learning
- Creating lively and inviting environments
- Developing understanding of emotions and personal growth
- Ensuring access to appropriate pastoral support
- Increasing access to specialist teachers and services

Seaton Sluice Middle School

Building Relationships

With pupils, parents, professionals and the community

- Creating smoother transition between schools
- Increasing collective respect
- Increasing parental involvement
- Widening mutual support
- Valuing, listening to and empowering everyone
- Improving communication
- Sharing vision, ethos and objectives
- Sharing resources, expertise, policies and knowledge
- Increasing flexibility
- Providing more opportunities for cross school activities

Creating Futures

for pupils, parents, professionals and the community

- Providing varied and innovative opportunities
- Promoting positive emotional climate
- Improving work life balance
- Linking with businesses & outside agencies
- Providing coherent extended services
- Enabling better use of finance and resources

Whytrig Middle School

Aiming Higher, Building Relationships, Creating Futures