We offer a home tuition service for those pupils with medical conditions, excluded pupils, traveller children and children who are deemed to be highly anxious non-attenders. Also, there are times when home visits are undertaken to meet children and their families prior to school entry; keeping in touch with pupils with long-term illness or visits to discuss attendance or pupil behaviour matters.

We believe the main safety risks associated with home tuition and home visits is that of violence to school personnel and allegations of abuse from pupils or their families. Therefore, we will take all reasonable practicable steps to maintain safe and healthy working conditions by having in place risk assessments and safe working procedures.

We must ensure that home visits are kept to a minimum with every effort being made to hold meetings in school. When it is essential for a home visit to be made then the visit must be authorised by the headteacher and only with two school personnel in attendance.

We strongly advice school personnel undertaking home tuition/visits to take all reasonable steps to eliminate potential risks and to be fully aware of the appropriate risk assessments. Home tutors/visitors must be vigilant in maintaining their privacy and mindful of the need to avoid placing themselves in a vulnerable situation.

We recognise our responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and will take all reasonably practicable steps to provide and maintain safe and healthy working conditions (on and off-site), equipment and systems of work for all our pupils, school personnel and visitors to the school.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates in to all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We acknowledge the findings of the Race Disparity Audit that clearly shows how people of different ethnicities are treated across the public services of health, education, employment and the criminal justice system.

The educational section of the audit that covers: differences by region; attainment and economic disadvantage; exclusions and abuse; and destinations, has a significant importance for the strategic planning of this school.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.
