Believing and Achieving Together

Signed:

Date: March 2023

Review: May 2025, or sooner if required

Curriculum Planning

Access (Success Indicators)
- All pupils have equal access to all curriculum areas.
- High investment in support staff helps promote the access of SEN, More Able and Talented, Looked After Children, Pupils from ethnic minorities and all underachieving pupils.
- Involvement of outside agencies to ensure that all pupils have access appropriate to their needs.
- A rolling programme ensures that resources are upgraded in line with current recommendations and advances in technology.

Statutory Requirements (Success Indicators)
- National Curriculum 2014 has been assimilated through the use of appropriate documentation and teachers medium term planning.
- Schemes of work are in place for all curriculum areas.
- Schemes of work are regularly reviewed and amended to meet the needs of pupils.
- Curriculum policies assist staff in planning and delivery.
- Curriculum policies are regularly reviewed (biannually).
- The foundation stage [EYFS] curriculum in place.
- Subject leaders ensure continuity and progression in curriculum development and planning.

Enrichment (Success Indicators)
- Rolling programme of subject focussed curriculum weeks for pupils, staff and parents.
- Colourful wall displays celebrate pupils work.
- Units of work are enriched by visits to interesting places or by inviting in interesting speakers or groups.
- After school extra curriculum activities offer further development for pupils.
- Pupils self esteem is developed through their involvement in school productions.

Subject Leaders (Success Indicators)

- Areas of the curriculum are monitored by subject leaders in order to ensure continuity, progression and development.
- Moderation of pupils work is undertaken.

School Development Plan (Success Indicators)
- Action planning for identified key areas of improvement are highlighted in the School Development Plan.
- Areas of the curriculum are annually evaluated and action plans are put in place.

Monitoring Provision (Success Indicators)
- Regular monitoring and evaluating takes place in order to raise standards.